Mayor Petrella thanked Nick Davis of Heavenly Coach Limo for picking up needed parts for village in Zanesville and delivering to the village as he has a business in Zanesville and graciously helped out.

The Mayor complimented employee, George Kovach for jumping in and helping a resident of Karen Place as to when her garbage pickup day would be as she is new to the area.

Bob Laukert has again been appointed as the village representative for BHJ. The Mayor did appoint Pennie Scarpone as a representative effective January 1, 2023.

Following the Finance Meeting on Monday, December 12, 2022 the Mayor has been told that the village is going to run on money. With that being said: "Not everyone gets participation trophy's" nor will everyone get a raise this year. He also stated he was told he could not run the village like a business. He is running the village like a business.

Mayor Petrella read off a list of his accomplishments since winning the election of which he ran on: Accountability, Prosperity & Efficiency: He solidified switching aggregate companies. Councilman Spence inquired with the company during a finance meeting and the company makes $500,000.00 to $1,000,000.00 dollars a year while only saving residents $30.00 a year.

The village is now maintaining their own equipment not have to pay outside companies. Chief Vandeborne will be appointing a new nuisance officer after the 1st of the year.

The police department was able to upfit their newest cruiser to be street ready.

Councilperson Damron has spearheaded the beautification committee. Thirteen new businesses have moved into the village this year. The Mayor has put a stop to personal use of village vehicles. He has also hired the new village solicitor, Jake Linn.

Mayor Petrella said there will be additional changes after the first of the year.
